A Real Corset Triumph

A leading feature of the Nemo "Fifteenth Anniversary Sale," now in progress here, is the new—

Self-Reducing No. 522 with Lastikops Bandlet } $5.

Warmly welcomed by every woman from stout to slim, who wants to be perfectly comfortable though very fashionably slender.

The "Bandlet" is the newest Nemo figure-reducing device. Partly elastic; gives gentle but firm support—better than any separate abdominal belt costing from $5.00 to $25.00; but it's a part of this new $5.00 corset—no extra charge for it.

It holds in the front steels—they can't stick out at the bottom. Women know what that means.

Stout women will "rave" over No.
522—it's a marvel of comfort and correct style. Just as good, too, for women of medium or even slender build, who aspire to the last degree of figure reduction.

There are other Nemo models for every figure—$2.00 to $10.00.

See the latest Nemos in this "Fifteenth Anniversary Sale"—it's well worth while.

Rube in Philadelphia.

He had not proceeded far when he saw an employee of the Philadelphia Electric company lift the lid of a manhole and crawl down into the conduit chamber. Evidently the sight filled Joshua with much thought, for he gazed earnently toward the manhole for a minute or two and then went over to a cop.
"Excuse me, Constable," said Joshua, addressing the police person, "but hain't they got a railroad down in the ground under this street?"
"They certainly have," indulgently answered the officer. "It is the subway of the Rapid Transit company."
"That's what they told me," responded the farmer, with another glance toward the center of the street, "but I hain't never seen it. Hossomover, I jes' seen a feller crawl in down ter ketch a train, an' sez I to myself, them holes must be all right for their men passengers, but they must be mighty derned inconvenient for the women folks."—

Ansonia.—Former Gov. James T.
Higgins of Rhode Island visited in Ansonia Tuesday.

All for One.

"Once upon a time there lived a good man who was soliciting contributions for the erection of an orphan asylum," said the story teller. "He had been to many rich people and received liberal contributions, which were entered in a book he had for that purpose. Among these many names there appeared Mrs. Rupert Smythe. The good man went to Mr. Smythe's office and, showing him the contribution entered by Mrs. Smythe, asked if he would not give a like sum. And what do you suppose he did?"
"Well, I suppose he doubled it," remarked the listener.
"Doubled it! Not Rupert! exclaimed the teller of the story. "Why, he simply took his pen and wrote, 'Mr. and before his wife's name and handed the book back."

Jacob Pidge, 88, Falls and Fractures Thigh—Taken to Backus Hospital—Effects of the Storm—Church Interests—Personals.

Jacob Pidge, 88, of South Killingly, was taken to Backus hospital Thursday evening with a fracture of the left thigh and the result of a fall on Thursday morning. Mr. Pidge left his home before daylight and in going down a hill fell and sustained the injury noted. Mr. Pidge was found after the day broke by A. A. Jacques. The injured man was lying in the gutter beside the road, with water from the heavy rain and melting snow pouring over him. He was taken to his home on a sled and Dr. F. F. Todd of Danielson summoned. The physician later ordered him removed to the hospital at Norwich. Because of his advanced age serious results may be expected from the accident, which was due to the slippery condition of the road, caused by the storm. Mr. Pidge is one of the oldest residents in that part of the town of Killingly.

Borough Notes.
Frederick E. Bitgood was in Providence on Thursday.

Lieut. E. L. Darbie, commanding the Thirteenth company, has been at Hartford to take the examination for captain.

Dr. F. T. Todd was called to South Killingly Thursday morning to attend Jacob Pidge, who has been injured by a fall.

Special Meetings Planned.

Rev. S. J. Cann of Providence will come to Danielson next week to conduct a series of nightly evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church. The first of the meetings will be held on Sunday evening, when the pastor, Rev.
Denton J. Noyes, will be the speaker.
The service on Sunday evening will commence at 7 o'clock.

End of Union Services.

Rev. Clarence Barber, pastor of the Congregational church, spoke at the union service held in the Baptist church Thursday evening. This will be the last of the union services for the week.

Score of 157.

Charles Nadeau was the high single for the week at the Center street bowling alley with a score of 157.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Thayer, who have been spending several weeks with relatives in Danielson while Mr. Thayer was regaining his health, have returned to their home in Putnam. Mr.
Thayer has taken up a part of his duties with the Southern New England telephone company.

Bad weather was undoubtedly responsible for reducing the size of the audience at the Town hall on Thursday evening, when The County Sheriff was presented. The play proved very good.

Pictures in Children's Room.

There is a pretty collection of pictures in the children's room at the library this month. The collection is under their hats until the proper moment.

No School Signal.

The fire alarm was used Thursday morning to signal, in school. This warning saved many a child a hard walk through streets choked with slush and a thousand little rivers.

Rain Cleared Off Ice Ponds.

The rain of Thursday pleased the ice men. It cut away the greater part of the snow that has been lying on the ponds and rivers since the big storm of Christmas night. This snow has kept the ice from freezing as fast as it would otherwise have done and has thereby delayed the cutting. Now they will be able to get the crop.

Permanent Charitable Society Mooted.

The money contributions to help the poor of Danielson amounted to $72.54.
Such money as remained after providing a Christmas dinner was expended for coal and fuel, which was distributed to those in need. A permanent organization to carry on this work in aid of the poor has been recommended.

ALL SORTS OF WEATHER.

Getting About on Thursday a Matter of Difficulty and Danger.

It was something awful, — on Thursday. The man that regulates the weather had more unkind things said about him in a few hours than have ever been said to all the baseball impulses in the world—and about everything sayable has been said to them.
One could slide or wade or swim about anywhere in the borough, and about everyone who ventured to come out on the streets did one or all of the three, and some people did them all in rapid succession. It was like picking your way through a river on foot. Every street was a little waterway all by itself and ankle deep with slush.

The rainfall was so heavy and the ground is frozen so hard that it was nonsense, and that caused the trouble.
The rain formed brooks and the brooks formed lakes everywhere. Ice-covered walks became as slippery as glass and added to the difficulty of getting about.
Sawdust and ashes helped relieve the condition to some extent, but not enough to save many persons from getting falls. There were so many places where the walking was treacherous that many fell, although no one was reported seriously injured in Danielson. Reports of accidents of a serious and even fatal nature, however, came from surrounding towns as the result of the storm. Conditions became so bad at noon that many of the female employees in stores and factories were unable to get to their homes for dinner. In spite of the fact that it rained hard for many hours, there is still much snow in places.

Ballard Estate $60,000.

The inventory of the estate of the late Isaac B. Ballard of Ballouville has been filed with Judge Oliver E. Getty of the probate district. The estate amounts to about $60,000.

Telephone Talk.

A telephone talk was held in Bahcock hall in Plainfield one evening this week. The talk was illustrated with views and was attended by members of the grange and telephone employes in this section of the county.

The indications are that the hourly service on the Providence and Danielson road will be continued this winter without interruption. It has been the custom in past years to give only a two hours' service at this time of the winter, but this change is usually inaugurated before this time.

Storm Killed Trade.

The stores were practically deserted during all of Thursday and the business men closed for the day with their receipts about as small as is expected at any time during the year. The walking was so bad that it killed trade.

Hunters Renewing Licenses.

Those who hunt in the town of Kil-lingly have commenced to make applications for renewals. All of the licenses issued during 1909 expired with the opening of the new year. Those who are renewing at this time are told that the season for deer, quail and other game is now open and that a hunter's license is required in going after an animal upon which a bounty is paid.

sonal Items.

George H. Taylor has been in Boston several days this week.

Miss Grace A. Taylor, who has been missed at the high school this week on account of illness, is able to be

Eagles' Officers Installed.

Past Worthy President William J.
Cronin of New Haven aerie of Eagles, No. 242, installed the newly elected officers of Putnam aerie of Eagles on Thursday evening. The ceremony was impressively conducted.

Hope to Save Finger.

George H. Bramwell, formerly of Maynard, Mass., an employee at the mill of French River, was injured by casting in the machine shop of the plant Thursday. He was sent to the Day-Kimball hospital, but was released later in the day. It was thought first that it would be necessary to amputate the finger, it was so badly injured, but it was treated in the hope that it may be saved.

Not Yet Identified.

On Thursday A. M. Towne, at the instance of Coroner A. G. Bill of Danielson, made photographs of the man that has been lying unidentified at the undertaking rooms of L. E. Smith, all this week. The chances of learning who the man is seem to grow less and less and he will probably be buried today (Friday), the third unknown to be picked up after meeting death in the open in this section within a few months, and buried without trace of his friends or relatives being found.

SURPRISED THE MAYOR.

Came to Fire Company's Quarters to Resign and Received Gift.

Mayor Archibald Macdonald was certainly less surprised when he was elected to head the present city government and just as certainly no more pleased than he was Thursday evening when he made a customary visit to the headquarters of the fire department, and found the members of the General Putnam book and ladder company, of which he has been foreman for twenty years, assembled and waiting to present a gift about which he had not received the slightest inkling of information. It was one of those rare occasions when a surprise really surprises and the mayor was to say the least, taken aback.

The members of the company, from which leadership they knew he was going to resign at last night's meeting, kept the move they contemplated under their hats until the proper moment, but when they brought forth an exceptionally fine crayon portrait of the mayor, and presented it with their compliments the tableau they had been planning for was exceedingly effective. The mayor received the gift promptly, but he showed how he felt about it for a minute. Assistant Forman Martin Welch made the presentation.

The presentation was followed by a supper and smoke talk in the social room and there were many speeches and many pretty things said about the mayor and retiring foreman. It was something of a love feast, for the mayor is a big favorite in the department.

The portrait of the mayor is a fine piece of work and one of the best likenesses ever made of him. It is framed in mission style quarters oak and all the firemen can guess that it will have a prominent place in the Macdonald home.

The feeling of the members of the department toward the mayor is fully reciprocated.

SLIPPED, STUNNED, DROWNED.

Strange Death of Olive Lesure While On Her Way to Work.

Olive Lesure, 25, employed as a spooler in Hammond & Knowlton's mill, was found lying face down in the gutter on School street about 7:10 on Thursday morning, by D. B. Gilbert, who was on his way to work. Investigation of the case showed that the young woman had met a surprisingly sudden death, a result of the storm and slippery going.

When she walked, she was stunned, and rolling into the gutter was drowned in the water that was running in unusual volume down School street. She boarded at the home of Mrs. Adelaide Durfee, at 119 School street, and had left the house at the usual time to go to the mill. She had not been out of the house a minute when she fell, for her body was found close to her boarding place.

The body was not discovered, however, until probably twenty minutes later. From the statements of persons made later in the day, it is evident that several must have passed the spot where Miss Le-sure was lying or already dead, without noting her prostrate form.

It was dark and raining at the time and though several say that they saw something lying beside the walk, they had not the slightest idea that it was a human being. It was near daylight when Mr. Gilbert came along.

Dr. B. Kent, medical examiner, viewed the body, giving his opinion that Miss Lesure met death as described. There were no bruises on the body.

The body was later removed to the undertaking rooms of Ballard & Clarke, in the mill, where she was relaxed in Pomfret, has lived in Putnam about seven years. She was employed in the mill as a spooler and is said to have been one of the most rapid workers in the department. She was a young woman of excellent character, any her death was a shock to many friends. It was also one of the most peculiar deaths ever recorded in this city.

Officers of Royal Arcanum.

Following are the newly elected and installed officers of Putnam council, Royal Arcanum: Regent, George W.
Baker; vice regent, William E. Davison; past regent, George S. Bradley; orator, L. H. Fuller; secretary, Warren S. Ames; collector, F. W. Seward; chaplain, Charles M. Ellis; guide, S.
Neill; warden, Frank W. Johnson; senior, Harry Murphy.

Social Circle Plans Year's Work.

The officers of the Ladies' Social circle of the Second Congregational church held a meeting at the home of Mrs. F. E. Clark in Stewart street Wednesday afternoon and discussed plans for the year's work. It was decided to give several suppers, entertainments, Christmas sale, cake sales, etc., and to hold sewing meetings; also that the young men of the church give a supper. It was voted that the officers of the circle give a supper to the members of the choir at a near date and that G. Harold Gilpatrick be appointed auditor. The programme committee is to meet today to arrange the programme for the year, which will be printed in connection with the programme of the Woman's Missionary society.

ary society was held with Mrs. C. H.
Brown in Wilkinson street this week.

ANOTHER RAP AT AMERICA

BY GEORGE BERNARD SHAW.

Comment on Decision Given Against a Woman Striker.

New York, Jan. 8.—The irrefragable George Bernard Shaw has taken another rap at America. By request of two leaders of the striking shirtwaist makers, he has committed the decision given on December 30 by Justice Olmstead against a woman striker who entered a complaint against a strike breaker.

"I know you are not working and are on strike," said Justice Olmstead, "you are on strike against God and nature, whose prime law it is that man shall earn his bread in the sweat of his brow. You are striking against God."

Mr. Shaw's reply, received today by cable, follows:
"Delightful medieval America. Always in the intimate personal confidence of the Almighty."
"GEORGE BERNARD SHAW."

Lawyer Prentice W. Chase of New Haven has been sued for $25,000 damages by John W. Coe of Kew-Forest.
The sudden and sensational suit was taken in connection with the suit brought by George E. Hodgson of New Haven against John W. Coe.</
